Dragons

Once upon a time a long time ago
Dragons were upon this land.
Great creatures they were.
They contained much wisdom and mystery.
Back then man and dragons were friends.
We both shared the same secrets of life.
Our yearning was to experience the key to life.
We both helped one another along the way.
Back then a dragon was a wise man best friend.
Something happened along the way.
Man thought he knew all of the answers.
Slowly throughout time man's idea of a dragon was something that was evil or greedy.
Maybe man has turned himself into the monster.
Maybe a dragon still has the same virtues today.
Has man given up on himself?
Have we lost the true meaning of life?

Higher Self

When I was young my brother and I would laugh when someone would talk about the higher self.

We were so ignorant.

We would laugh and say is there a higher self and lower self then who are we?

Yet year's later wisdom creeps in.

Imagine inside of us lies the higher self yet we don't realize it.

We are the sun, the moon, and the trees.

You and I are all one.

There is a part of us which never leaves the kingdom of God.

We are never alone.

The entire universe supports us.

Help is always there.

Yet our door is closed.

How do we open the door?

Well, the first step is to know that the door is closed and you want to open the door.

The second step is the intent to open the door.

The same steps that exist in the physical to open a door are the same steps to open your door within.

With your intent declare that my intention is to open this door and day by day sit still and calm your mind and a little light will come in.

Practice.

Follow your breath.

Your breath is your friend.

Within each and every action practice patience.

Practice kindness.

Practice tolerance.

Practice loving your fellow man.

It takes work and effort to open this door.

Nobody gets a free ride.

Your car is inside the garage just sitting there.

Open up your garage door and take your car for a spin.

You are in for quite a ride.

The Hidden Laws

Many people think I go to church once a week and I give my offering to God.

Where is my experience?

Where is God?

Where is the kingdom of heaven?

The greatest game in the universe is being played out yet we have no idea the game is going on.

We search for God all throughout all life looking for him everywhere.

God is hidden inside of you.

It says in the Bible the kingdom of heaven lies within.

Every person has to discover the key within that will open the door.

Only by you making inside effort will you discover the keys to the universe.

A part of you is God.

A part of you is the universe.

You are just not aware of it.

Only you can save yourself.

Only you can open the door within.

Only you can open the garage and take your car for a spin.

The more you drive your car the more you will discover who you truly are.

Love and compassion is the fuel.

Daily love your fellow man.

These are hidden laws that exist.

Remember only you can open up the garage door of your heart.

The Lighthouse

It's a dark and gloomy night.

A huge storm is under way.

The waves are huge and a tiny ship is trying to find the harbor. There is a lighthouse on the horizon.

It shows the captain of the ship where to steer the ship to calm waters.

The lighthouse simply shines a light.

It has no other mission.

Yet this light has saved many from going aground.

We are all lighthouses.

Discover your inner light and shine it throughout this land.

Remember we are human beings, not human doers.

Is There A Plan?

Imagine the earth has been around for over a billion years.

Yet man has been around for only a moment in time.

Is there a master plan?

Is there a reason why we are here?

We have free choice.

Does man like what he has created.

Anger, war and poverty.

I think the majority of mankind wants peace.

We want harmony for all.

We love our fellow man.

Is life on earth a grand experiment?

Are we as humans going to blow ourselves up?

I don't think so.

We will bring peace on earth.

The answer lies within.

We will surprise the universe.

We can overcome our obstacles.

President

I admit I'm a little confused.
In olden time a president would be thrown out of office saying such things.
I can grab women by the pussy and get away with it.
I can shoot someone in the street and nobody would care, they would still vote for me.
Let's build a giant wall and Mexico will help build it.
No more Muslims will be allowed into our country.
Let's put Hillary into prison.
The list goes on and on.
Yet America voted for him.
Have we lost our morals?
We know the system is broken.
Both parties have lost touch with the common American.
A president used to be dignified.
Your fired is coming your way.

Prophets

The world is waiting for the prophets to come back.
The Jews are awaiting for this savior.
The Christians are waiting for their Christ.
The Muslims are waiting for Mohammad.
We are all waiting.
How would it be in this go around they all merge as one and are here on earth?
Indivisible but cheering us along.
Is it possible?
Yes.
By the way when you die you become indivisible.
Maybe we can feel the sunshine and warmth of their love.
Maybe deep in our DNA they are there saying look within your heart.
We never left you.
You are never alone.
You just think you are.
This is the greatest time to be alive.
It doesn't look that way.
Your prophets are here.
Look inside your heart and you will see.

Happiness

Many people think that if you pursue truth you must be a prude.
I could never sacrifice my life.
I love my vices.
Nobody ever said you have to give up anything.
You have free choice.
No judgments are made.
This life is an incredible journey.
We are simply saying there is another way.
We are wearing tinted sunglasses.
We are not seeing the grandeur of life.
We don't understand this cosmic joke.
Once you understand laughter will be heard throughout the universe.
You are God you just don't know it.
The happiness you are looking for is hidden in your heart.

The Inner Well

Imagine you're in the dessert and you are looking for water.

Your lips are parched.

Your body is dying.

The only thing on your mind is I need water.

You have visions of water but they disappear in the distance.

I see a mirage.

Suddenly an old man appears and says are you thirsty?

He leads you to a well where you drink to your delight.

He says stay here for a while.

Get some rest.

I'll cook you a fine dinner.

Here are some clean clothes to wear.

There is a well within.

Christ said he who would drink the living waters of life would have everlasting life.

This well is keeping you alive.

There is no substance on earth that will get you higher.

There are no harmful side effects.

This is your true nature.

The Chameleon

The chameleon blends itself into its environment.
It's there but not full of pride.
It moves around yet is gentle.
Man's ego is grand.
Look at the watch I'm wearing.
Look at the car I'm driving.
The ego is shouting "I'm important".
Look to me when I enter the room.
A wise man has nothing to prove.
He blends in with man.
He is kind and loves all.
He has been there and done that.
He just smiles when you try to display yourself.

The Lantern

Throughout history, man has stumbled in the dark.

Man has a distrust with one another.

War is the norm.

I'll take what is mine.

This land belongs to me.

I'm going to rule you.

Darkness is in the land.

There is a lantern within us all.

It is not lit.

Now is the time to light the lantern.

This light will wake up mankind.

It will dispel the darkness around.

Peace will come to earth when mankind lights the lantern within his heart.

Love

Love makes the universe dance in joy.
Love makes the stars dance in harmony around the galaxy.
Love makes two loves dance in the night.
Love makes the sun send beams of light.
Love is the substance of light.
Love is true communication.
Love is the foundation of DNA.
Love create waves to a surfer's delight.
Love exists inside of your heart.
Listens to the song of love within your heart.
You will understand this riddle.

Meditation

Meditation is like surfing.
It's hard at first.
It takes time and effort.
Nobody is a great surfer when they first start.
The same goes with meditation.
The techniques are so ever simple.
They are so simple that the minds says is that all you got.
Yet day by day the water of life is dissolving the darkness inside.
You first begin to meditate purely for yourself.
Over time you meditate for everyone on earth.
At first, you meditate and try to connect to God inside.
Over time you realize that God is meditating on you.
He is keeping you alive.
You are never alone.

The Savior

Many people pray to be saved.
Yet they don't want to make any effort.
I can go to a house of worship pay my five bucks and that's my dedication for the week.
I can continue with my old ways.
It says all of have to do is believe in the savior.
The savior says that you must save yourself.
He is your best coach.
Yet you are the only one to play the game of light.
Only you can save yourself.
All the tools exist inside.
It takes effort to mine your heart.
Blood, sweat, and tears.
It's not easy yet the goal is in sight.
Your coach loves you so dearly he hides in your heart just waiting to be discovered.

The Game Of Life

Man loves to play games.
We play monopoly or shoots and ladder.
The rulers play war games sending youth to war.
Husbands play games with their wife while wives play games with their husbands.
Children play hop and scotch.
Does God create the game of life?
Was the entire universe created for a reason?
It took billions of years just to create the earth.
That's a long time in the making.
We look at to the stars and we know there must be a God.
But where does he hide?
Our search for God is everywhere but inside of our heart.
God hides within a place you would never think to look.
The wise men have always said the Kingdom of heaven lies within.

Mastery

How does a person master himself?
It takes a lot of work and effort.
We must first love to listen more than we speak.
That's a hard one.
We must learn to be patient.
What!!
We must learn to dissolve anger within and transform it into compassion.
We must learn how not to gossip.
John did so and so.
Give up your jealousy.
It's not helping you at all.
Be aware of your actions.
Fine tune the guitar.
Look at your motives.
Is it in harmony or not.
Learn to develop a healthy relationship with your mind.
Love it and it will love you.
Learn how to be content.
Spend time with family and friends.
They are the treasures of life.
Balance between your work and play.
You did not come to this planet solely to work.
Learn something new.
How about learning to meditate?
Each and every moment we can learn how to master ourselves.
Nobody gets a free ride.

Grace

Did you know that because of free choice grace is falling from heaven but we are not aware?

God is reaching out to us yet we don't see it.

The angels are singing our songs yet we don't listen.

The universe is keeping us alive yet we live in such a mundane existence.

The earth sends us her love yet we can hardly wait to talk on our cell phone.

The wind is blowing in our face and we are on Facebook catching up on the latest.

The sun is broadcasting love to us while we gently go on our ways.

The solar system is dancing into eternity.

We are oblivious.

Have we forgotten the mysteries of life?

Grace is everywhere but our eyes are closed.

The wise men says to find the grace within and you will see the answer to this riddle.

God Is Ever Where But I Can't See It

How is it that we come from God and we are born into this world we forget where we come from?

A baby is in that state of joy.

A baby is not separated.

How could it when an angel is holding it?

As we grow older day by day we forget.

Our hormones kick in and by that time God is foreign to us.

The evidence of God is everywhere.

Where ever you look God is smiling at us.

He does not judge us.

All the great books have said discover God within you.

Day by day dive within your soul and discover the diamond within.

It is within reach.

Best Of Both Worlds

I'm so thankful I discovered God within.
I have the best of both worlds.
The treasure within is shared with mankind.
Happiness, joy, and content.
Love for mankind.
I have the best of both worlds.
I love learning to master myself.
Inside and outside this life is a gift.
I'm so lucky to be alive.
Danger is all around yet the path I walk on is safe.
I may get laid off yet, in the end, another job opportunity is just around the bend.
This life is an incredible journey.
Enjoy every step on the way.

Human Being

We are human beings.
Yet in our actions, we are human doers.
We are on our cell phone driving to work.
When we meet someone new we say "What do you do for a living".
If you're a stay at home Mom they will look up and down at you in disgust.
Money is our religion.
We have forgotten the innocence of life.
How much love have you accumulated?
Are you a being of patience and tolerance?
Have you found the essence of life?
Will you take your money with you when you die?
This is a riddle which must be solved by you.
Are you a human being or a human doer?
There is no judgment here.
The choice is simple yours.

Entanglement with God

Now I'm not a scientist
Yet I'm curious about energy.
There is a theory that energy can entangle with another energy millions of light years away.
It means there can be a communication between one another.
Does this mean the universe talks and listens?
How fascinating?
The whole universe is entangled with God.
How about us?
Are we entangled with God and the universe?
The answer is yes!
Does that blow you away?
Or
I don't have a reaction one way or another.
It's just theory.
From time memorial the wise men have said in their own words you are entangled with God.
The Kingdom of heaven is within.
Only you can solve this puzzle.

The Scientist

How much fun would it to be a scientist?
Can you imagine discovering DNA?
How about finding the sequence of DNA and saying 94% is junk.
Does God create junk or do we not understand what we see?
How about discovering a black hole or quasar?
How much fun to explore space?
Have we lost the adventure of discovering life?
Imagine the entire universe know us.
Isn't that exciting?
We can communicate with the universe and the universe will talk back.
These are exciting times for us.
The true scientist exists inside of us.
The essence of life is to be discovered.

God Is Hidden

God is hidden.

God hides inside of your newborn baby.
Every step you take God is walking beside you.

You are never alone.

God dances in the stars at night.

God is beaming warmth from the sun.

The birds are soaring above.

Fishes are in the sea.

The universe is alive.

Do you want to partake in this magic?

God is hidden because your door is closed.

Open up your door within.

You will see that God has always been there.

He was waiting for you all the time.

What Is An Angel?

What is an Angel?

We have a tendency to make Angels human like.

They have a human body and have wings.

But what if Angels are multidimensional energy?

They have no body or form.

We imagine a God with a long beard sitting on a thorn.

How much do we place our human conditions on God?

When we die we go back to the source.

We become the sun, the moon, and the stars.

This is our true nature.

We came from the infinite and are born into this world.

We forget our true nature.

This coming and going is the game of life.

Have we forgotten who we truly are?

What is our true nature?

Where did we come from?

How do I discover my true nature?

This is the greatest game in the universe.

The Gift

Can you imagine you are the sun, moon, and stars?

You are the universe.

You are eternal

You are life itself.

You must think I'm crazy.

But there is truth in all of us.

A part of you is on the other side.

You are never alone.

The universe supports you.

There is a gift inside of you.

Open up this gift and you will solve this riddle.

Friends

You have friends in many incredible places.

God is your friend.

The universe is your friend.

The earth is your friend.

The wind is your friend.

The waves in the ocean is your friend.

The stars are your friend.

The sun is your friend.

Even your enemy is your friend.

You just don't know it.

How would it be to know truly in your heart your friends are everywhere.

You are never alone.

Walk In The Park

Let's take a walk in the park.
You will not need your cell phone today.
Take step by step and be aware of your breath.
Slow down there is no rush.
There is something keeping you alive.
Look at all the wondrous flowers.
All different colors of the rainbow are there.
As you cross the bridge notice the frogs hidden in the lotus pads.
Did you know the lotus flower its roots live in the murky water while the petals rise above and aren't touched by the dirty water?
What a sight to see.
Butterfly are everywhere.
Bees are gathering nectar from the flowers.
Look at the turtle basking in the sun.
Do you see the koi fish swimming in the water?
The earth is alive.
When you truly slow down you will never get bored in nature.
I once did.
Come with me for a walk in the park.

Heaven Or Hell

Do you know we create heaven or hell?
Heaven or hell is a state of mind.
We listen to our mind and get tormented by it.
We don't realize our mind is our friend.
We should control our mind not the other way around.
To conquer the mind is the hardest thing to do and the easiest thing to do.
You decide.
The choice is yours.
You can all be like the great masters.
They walked in the same shoes as you do.
They took step by step and never lost their way.
Oh they fell down and made mistakes.
They learned from them.
Some of them probably had a lot of bad vices.
But when you go inside and experience the source of life they eventually go away.
This is not an easy path.
But just being on this planet is challenging.
The more you take individuals steps the path becomes easier.
I remember in the beginning it took hours to calm down the mind.
Now I close my eyes and my mind is calm.
Yet this is still the beginning of my journey.
This journey will go on forever.

The Rose

Have you smelled the perfume of life?

Have you tasted life's nectar?

Have you seen the light of your soul?

Have you felt God's love showering on you?

This life is more than weeds.

There is a rose inside you.

Contemplate this and discover the beauty of this riddle.

The Fairest Wheel Of Life

Are we on the fairest wheel of life?

We go around and around.

We are happy and then we are sad.

We love someone and then we get totally pissed off by someone.

We are at peace and then in the next moment, we are all war.

We go around and around in a circle.

How do we go beyond this wheel of life?

The masters have come from time immemorial.

They have all said the same thing.

Look inside of your heart to answer this riddle.

The Surfboard

The surfboard is the vehicle to ride the ocean waves.
You can take this board around the world and ride the magnificent waves.

You paddle out.

You encounter obstacles along the wave.

When the waves are big you are panting for breath.

I made it out.

Now, what do I do?

You wait for a wave to come.

Ah, look at that one.

I'm in perfect position.

You either catch the wave or you don't.

The wave doesn't wait for you.

You stand up and you made the drop.

Your mind is totally at peace.

You are in the zone.

You made the wave.

Or

I'm paddling for the wave.

I think I got it.

Oh my God I'm going over the falls.

It seems like years I'm under water.

Yet only a few seconds go by.

The wise men were surfers of their day.

They discovered the waves of light.

There is an ocean within just waiting to be discovered.

Did you know you are a surfer?

The Whale

When I was young my brother and I went for a spin on a motorboat with our dear friend Mark.

It took time to go from the harbor to outside the jetty.

When we got outside the jetty Mark turned off the engine.

Suddenly we felt thousands of bubbles beneath us.

Never before have I been so excited.

A huge whale comes to the surface and greet us.

I'll never forget those beautiful eyes.

The whale knew he could destroy us but that wasn't on his mind.

The whale was our friend.

He had nothing to prove.

He was majestic.

I'll never forget that experience.

The Wine Of Life

They say that wine will get better with age.
But in the job market today there is discrimination.
I was once laid off and given a great termination package on the condition I would sign this document.
The document said I couldn't sue the company for age discrimination.
This was a carrot on a stick.
It's sad that folks at Google think you are washed up at 30 years old.
They become putrefied with age.
They self-worth goes away.
I'm no longer needed.
What a joke we play on ourselves?
The older I get the wiser I get.
Society doesn't see it that way.
I'm proud of my life and you can't take that away.
Millions of people are getting older and are like that fine wine.
We must change our ways.

The Mirror

We are look in the mirror when we get ready for work.
If the night was full of partying we will see baggage under our eyes.
If you are young a child will giggle to the mirror.
The mirror will reflect our state of mind.
If your husband cheated on you, your face will be full of sadness.
If you mates propose to you, you will declare I'm the luckiest person in the world.
If your Mom dies you will reflect grief.
There is a mirror within that needs to be discovered.
A wise man cleans the mirror of life within.
He finds his true nature.

Your House Needs Dusting

When you dust your house the dust flies all around.
At times it appears the dusting truly causes more dust to fly.
Yet at the end of the day, your house is clean.
Are we at the point in time where humanity is dusting our house?
It seems like more chaos than ever.
The world is spinning out of control.
Yet realize the house is being cleaned.
Peace will prevail on this earth.
Now continue the house cleaning.

It Takes Two To Tango

It takes two to tangle.

The next time you are about to get angry remember the following.

It takes two to tangle.

You can diffuse your anger by seeing the mole hill is not the mountain.

What difference does it make?

Do I really need to prove my point of view?

There are always two sides of the story.

The wise man always sees it takes two to tangle.

If you give anger to a wise man he will not accept it.

The anger will be redirected back to you.

This is the true martial artist.

The wise knows it takes two to tangle.

Do You Want Some Small Advice?

Do you want some small advice?

Let go of your anger.

You may hold some situation for decades.

The other person has forgotten about it years ago.

Yet you carry this baggage on your shoulder.

Throw this baggage away.

Forgive yourself and others.

This doesn't mean you forget, it means you forgive.

You will experience less weight on your journey of life.

Practice being a human being.

You are a human doer.

Sit and play with your children.

Put your cell phone away.

Your children will grow right before you.

Take this golden opportunity to know them.

Spend time with your friends.

Don't put your job first in your life.

Create a work-life balance.

Learn how to meditate.

Let go of old energies such as anger, fighting, impatience, intolerance, and greed.

Drop them by the side of the road.

Embrace kindness, compassion, tolerance, patience, and love.

Over time you will soar like the eagle.

Remember you are a piece of the puzzle.

You can change the world.

How Did The Master Become The Master?

How did the master become the master?
Do you think the master was born that way?
The master became a master by a lot of work.
Nobody gets a free ride.
A master makes mistakes along the way.
He makes thousands of mistakes along the way.
Yet over time he learns from his mistakes.
He learns what buttons people push that are his weak links.
Over time there are no buttons to push.
He will just smile and listen to you.
He has nothing to prove.
A master loves to meditate.
Not only sitting in meditation.
A master learns to be in a constant state of meditation.
Walking around is fun.
There is no boredom.
There is a love of this great journey of life.
This journey is eternal.
The master knows this and so can you.

You Are The Company That You Keep

In India, there is a saying tell me who you keep company with and I will tell you who you are.

If you keep company with the Mafia you will probably be a member of the Mafia.

If all your friends use drugs most likely you will too.

If all of your friends like rap music you will probably like it.

You are the company that you keep.

Here's some good advice.

Why not be a friend of your higher self.

You are the sun, moon, and stars.

You are never alone.

Your best friend is God.

He lives inside of your heart.

You are one and the same.

Remember you are the company that you keep.

You have free choice to make.

I would consider this offer.

Practice Is The Key

Everything you learn in life you must practice.
A baby learns how to walk.
It stumbles and falls
The baby gets frustrated.
Yet in time the baby learn to walk.
It even learns how to run and leap through the air.
Everything in life you must practice.
Many people come up to me and say I can't meditate.
It's too hard.
My mind is constantly chattering.
To learn how to meditate takes time and effort.
You learned how to walk.
You can learn to meditate.
You can learn how to be a master.
Remember practice is the key.

The Dilemma

Here's the dilemma.
The universe is linear or so it seems.
We can travel in a linear fashion earth to the moon.
Everything we do is linear.
We think that God is in heaven sitting on a throne.
We think that angels have wings.
Yet what if God is a multidimensional energy.
A scientist can only see 3D.
God is beyond 3D.
The creation is 3D yet the creator is beyond 3D.
Your true self-exists in both 3D and beyond.
This is a great mystery.
This is the dilemma.
How can something that is 3D find God that is 3D and beyond?
This is the true game of life.
Find out who you truly are.

Is Life Like A River?

Is life like a river?

We are born and we float merrily down the river of life.

At times a storm comes and we get thrown one way and the other way.

We are confused and dissatisfied with life.

We are with our lover and watch the moon at night.

Where does the river of life take us?

Who is the one that places you on this river?

Who is the one that takes you from this river when your life is ended?

Only you can answer this riddle.

The Software Engineer

I love being a software engineer.
I have been doing it for thirty plus years.
I have learned so many different languages.
C, C++, C#.
Each one is a tool.
I love starting with a blank slate and create a useful tool.
Many mistakes abound.
These are called bugs.
You fix your bugs and go on your way.
I love the wonder when it's done.
Built a dome automation program in Maui.
No more the dome operator falling asleep.
I have learned to be my own software engineer.
I look at my bugs in life and try to fix them.
Some bugs go deep.
It takes time to fix them.
We can all learn to program our life.
We can choose our destiny?
The world doesn't control us.
We have the tools.
We just have to use them.

Stuff It In Our Closet

How much do we stuffs things and place them in our closet?
We know we should stop smoking.
Yet we stuff this into our closet.
We know we have an anger problem yet we stuff it into the closet.
How large is the closet?
We have a lot of junk along the way.
Maybe it's time for spring cleaning.
Let's go one by one and say do I really need this.
Just choose one item from the closet.
This will make your life easier.
One day you will open up the closet of life and discover nothing is there.
You will enjoy no more baggage.

The Sound Of Silence

Sit still and listen.

How do I sit still?

How do I listen?

What do you mean by sitting still?

What am I supposed to listen to?

The mind loves to ramble on.

Here's what seems to be two simple things yet it's the hardest thing in life.

This is the most difficult.

Sit still and listen.

Try to solve this riddle.

Master have come and gone.

They all say the same thing.

Sit still and listen.

Why

Why am I alone?
You are never alone.
Why has God not shown himself to me?
Maybe you are looking in the wrong place.
How about looking in your heart?
How come God never talks to me?
I pray to God.
Maybe you should listen to the sweetness of breath.
I have read all the great books but I'm still not in peace.
Peace only lies within.
The great books only talk about the fruit.
The fruit exists inside of you.
Why does God allow war?
You have free choice.
You can change.
Why is there poverty on earth?
Learn to share with others.
Don't be so greedy.
Everyone has free choice.
Now is the time to start thinking about others.
Only humans can fix their problems.
God does not fix them for you.
I'm always by your side.

What Is Greater?

What is greater a man who has conquered the world

Or a man who has found peace in his heart?

What is the greater one who is full of anger?

Or the one who has learned to control anger?

What is greater the rich man who has billions of dollars and doesn't share it

Or the poor peasant in India sharing a meal with me?

What is greater love or money?

What is greater talking about God or to experience God?

These are the question for today.

You Can Take A Horse To Water

I once had a grand teacher who said you can take a horse to water and you can't make it drink.

But you can put salt in his food.

Hopefully, these poems are the salt in your food.

May you drink the waters of life within?

Throughout time masters have come and gone and sprinkles a little salt along the way.

Are you getting thirsty?

In Ancient India

In ancient India comes this story.
Two men a rich merchant and a thief.
Both men decide to travel together.
After each day they would share a room for the night.
The merchant carried a precious diamond.
Each night the thief would search all over the room to steal this diamond.
This would occur every night on their journey.
Final they reached their destination.
The thief said to the merchant the following.
I'm a grand thief.
I have been looking every night to steal your diamond.
Where did you hide it?
The merchant replied.
I hid it in the last place you would ever think.
I place it under your pillow.
Is this the same story for man?
We look for God outside yet God is hidden within.
We never looked at the most obvious.
God lies in our heart.

The Door Of Life

Don't shut the door of life?
It was meant to be open.
Unfortunately, man has closed the door to life.
What is beyond the door?
You are the universe you just don't know it.
You are the sun, moon, and stars.
You are the great mystery.
Only you can open the door within.

Who Were You Before You Were Born?

Who were you before you were born?

Who are you when you die?

We came and we go.

Just think you are the universe.

In this life, you can discover this precious jewel of life.

Is A Spiritual Life Boring?

Many people think that a spiritual life is boring?

They think they miss out on life.

In fact, a person who is spiritual is on the journey of life.

Boredom never comes to mind.

Life is exciting and a grand adventure.

Slaying the demons of the mind is not easy.

Learning to meditate and see the monkey mind is not a walk in the park.

How about learning to control your anger?

I would not consider that to be a boring affair.

Fighting between darkness and light.

This is no easy battle.

God is there to coach you but you must fight the battle.

Oh, I would say that the spiritual life is not boring.

Only you can solve this puzzle.

Is Life Like A Swing?

Is life like a swing?
We are happy and then we are sad.
We are content and the next moment we are angry.
Are we acting by life's events?
Whatever life throws at us we react.
Do you know we can control the swing of life?
We don't have to be drama queens.
Man was born with the capacity to stop, look and listen.
When something negative comes your way.
Stop and take a deep breath.
Look what's coming your way.
Listen to your higher self.
This event is something to learn.
Drop the old energies of anger.
Smile and experience the wave of life.
You are eternal.
You can master the swing of life.
End the cycle of drama.

Feet On The Ground Head In Heaven

All the great masters have said the same thing.
Have your feet on the ground but have your head in heaven.
You are the sun, moon, and stars.
In this state, you would not have a care in the world.
Anger would be a million miles away.
You would know that we are all one.
You wouldn't just think it but in your daily action, you would experience it.
Peace would be on this planet.
You would be walking with your creator.
Christ was a great master who lived in this state.
He showed man that you have God inside of you.
The kingdom of heaven is within.
Only you can answer this riddle.

Does God Have A Face?

Does God have a face?
Is there a God sitting in heaven on a throne?
Did God create this universe in 7 days?
How long is a day 7 billion years?
Do angels have wings?
Is there a heaven and hell?
There is a heaven and hell it's your state of mind.
God does not punish you.
You punish yourself on earth.
God will embrace you when you die.
It doesn't matter if you are a saint or a sinner.
God does not judge you.
He accepts you who you are.
God is hidden inside of you.
Only you can open up the door.
The true journey of life begins with this simple step.

The Lightworker

The light worker is Gods handyman.
You will probably never know their line of work.
They work behind the scenes.
They are proud of their work yet they never gloat about it.
You probably have one at work.
They just shine light where they go.
Yes, they are not perfect.
They make mistakes.
Yet they learn from them.
It a constant job that why its call a light worker.
They shine light all over the world.
The light of God dispels darkness on this land.
The light worker uses God light to dispel darkness.
This light will transform man.
Peace will be on this earth.
You just wait and see.

The Prince Of Peace

Did you know that you are a prince?
Did you know that peace exists in your heart?
Did you know you are eternal?
Did you know a part of you is one with God?
Did you know your mission is to solve this puzzle?
It might sound outlandish that this may be true.
Don't take my word.
Why not see for yourself.
It just takes one small step upon another.

Convert

Did you know God does not try to convert you?
He does not say if you don't believe or follow me you are going to hell.
God does not judge.
All the great books were channeled from God to a human being.
He simply put those words into a book.
There are many ways to God.
God doesn't care about your religion.
Quite frankly he doesn't like religious wars.
My religion is better than your religion.
How trite is that?
God does not take sides when both are fighting.
Actions speak louder than words.
A man of God is one that has a humble heart.
He has found his true home within his heart.
He has dropped the war inside and is sleeping with his beloved.
He is never alone.

God Released You

When you were born God released you from heaven into this world.

When you die God releases you from this world into his arms.

It doesn't matter if you are a saint or sinner God accepts you the same.

You have free choice.

God will always love you.

When I was young at times I couldn't stand to hear about God.

I would get a cringe inside.

They wanted me to feel guilty about putting Christ on a cross.

I did not put him on a cross.

That was two thousand years ago.

You are born a sinner.

How can you be born a sinner when we came from God?

Is God a sinner?

Through time by meditating and praying I learned truly to love God.

I ate the apple of life and no serpent engulf me.

Peace exists inside.

I found God in my heart.

The universe is alive.

Hello

Hello, are you out there?
I'm trying to inspire you.
I don't wish to convert you.
There isn't anything to convert.
I'm not here to judge you.
I'm not her to condemn you.
Life does not condemn.
What I say is simple.
It comes from my heart.
Discover the universe that lies inside.
Don't take my word.
See for yourself.

The New Dawning Of Man

Is this the new dawning of man?
Have we reached a point in history where we can say let's get rid of the old?
War has raged on this planet and what has it created.
Another war.
We should have blown up the planet by now.
Armageddon should have come and this land would have been barren.
Yes, a new dawning of man is coming.
You just wait and see.
The entire universe is cheering for us.
The new dawning of man is coming.

Marpa The Translator

I once read a book given by a dear friend.
It was the story of Milarepa a great Tibetan saint.
Milarepa was looking for Marpa.
He wondered throughout the land.
He saw this simple farmer plowing his field.
Milarepa said “Do you know where Marpa the translator lives” in a sarcastic voice.
Oh he is miles down the road.
He spent a few days walking and asked another farmer.
Oh you passed him two days ago.
He was the farmer that was plowing his field.
A great master has nothing to prove.
He loves to plow the fields of life.
He loves to pull weeds and plant seeds when the soil is rich.

Peace On Earth

Did you know that God does not bring peace on earth?

That is our choice.

Did you know that God won't stop a war?

That is our choice.

Did you know that God won't stop poverty on earth?

That is our choice.

God won't stop the problems we have created.

That is our choke.

How Would You Like To Be?

How would you like to be like an eagle soaring in the wind?

How would you like to be like a dolphin dancing in the waves?

How would you like to be a star sparkling at night?

How would you like to be the universe in all its glory?

How would you like to be the sun shining warmth to this world?

This is the riddle of life.

You are the sun, moon, and stars.

Discover your true essence.

The Horse

The horse is wild and running in the wind.
It loves to run.
The horse loves its freedom.
It can go anywhere it desires.
The horse loves the pack it's in.
It doesn't fight or squabble.
The horse has a tremendous mane yet is gentle in nature.
We have the horse within.
Freedom exists inside.
We can run with the wind.
Only you can discover this riddle.
